Dear Mr. Trombold:

LETTER OF WARNING

We are in receipt of your letter of February 14, 1984, in which you requested a 30-day extension to reply to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Part B completeness letter of February 3, 1984.

Please be advised that you are hereby given a 15-day extension, until March 28, 1984, in which to provide the requested information. As this is the second opportunity you have had to provide all the information necessary for us to consider your application complete, failure to provide all the required information in your response due March 28, 1984, may result in EPA initiating procedures under 40 C.F.R. §124.6(b) to terminate Interim Status for your facility, or the issuance of a Section 3008 Compliance Order, with penalties, or both.

Any technical questions regarding your Part B application should be directed to Karen Flournoy at 816/374-6531. Any questions regarding this Letter of Warning should be directed to Wayne Kaiser, 816/374-7133.

Sincerely yours,

David A. Wagoner
